

- User Story.

Freelancer is a marketplace where employers (customers) and employees (freelancers) can find each other. The site allows employers to post bids (project to be completed) for members of the site who submit proposals through a competitive bidding process. Employers and employees build profiles on the site as they bid; complete jobs and write and receive reviews about the people they work with or for.

- Use case diagram.

- Classes diagram.

